PRIVACY POLICY FOR CLIENTS

PRIVACY POLICY

MTG Liquidity Limited (the “Company”) is a Cyprus Investment Firm (CIF) authorised and regulated by the Cyprus Securities and Exchange Commission (CySEC) with CIF Licence number 390/20.

This Privacy Policy applies to all personal data processed by the Company for the provision of investment and ancillary services in respect to every current, former and prospective client. When processing personal data, the Company is subject to the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (GDPR) and the Cyprus Law(I) of 2018. The Company acts as a Data Controller as per the GDPR provisions, which means that we determine solely or jointly with others, the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.

For the purposes of this Policy “Personal Data” means any information that could be used, on its own or in conjunction with other data, to identify an individual, directly or indirectly. “Processing” means any operation or set of operations that is performed on personal data, such as collection, recording, storage, use, disclosure, erasure or destruction.

This Privacy Policy describes what types of personal data we collect about you when you choose to use our services, how we will use your personal data, when and with whom we share it and how we will keep it safe. It also details your rights in respect of our processing of your personal information and how you may exercise them. Please take the time to read and understand this policy.

Please note that this notice is addressed to customers and potential customers.

1. Personal Data that we may collect

When you create an account with the Company, we require you to provide your first and last name, e-mail address, details about your financial status, your residential address, phone number, date of birth, a copy of your national identity card or passport or driving licence, a copy of a recent utility bill/bank statement (or similar) as evidence of your residential address, credit card or bank card details, Tax residence and Tax Identification Number, profession and employment details, knowledge and experience in trading, risk tolerance and risk profile and other information we may consider necessary to our functions and activities and in order to be in a position and be permitted to provide our services to you.

If the Company requests you to provide to it personal data and you fail to do so the Company may not be in a position to provide a service and/or enter into an agreement with you, in which case it will inform you accordingly.

The abovementioned data are collected by the Company when you are going to open a trading account with the Company. It is required by the AML/CFT Law (the Prevention and Suppression of Money laundering and Terrorist Financing Law of 2007-2019 as amended from time to time) and CySEC's AML/CFT Directive that the Company collects the necessary data for verifying your identity, constructing your economic profile, monitoring your account and verifying the source of funds (when it is necessary). Additionally, we use this data to set up and administer your trading account, provide technical and customer support. If you are a corporate client, we are required to collect information related to the legal entity (e.g. corporate and constitutional documents), additional personal information on the shareholders, directors and other officers that we deem as necessary in order to be compliant with our legal and regulatory requirements.

We are obliged by law to record any communications, electronic, by telephone, in person or otherwise, that we have with you in relation to the services we provide to you and our relationship with you. These recordings will be our sole property and will constitute evidence of the communications between us. It should be noted that we are obliged by Law 87(I)/2017 to keep records of all telephone conversations and electronic communications that are related to transactions concluded or intended to result in transactions when dealing on own account and the provision of client order services that relate to the reception, transmission and execution of client orders.

2. Legal Ground for personal Data processing

We may process your personal data for one or more lawful bases of processing (“Lawful Basis”) depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data.

They will only process the Client's personal data on the Company's instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

Your personal data may be stored electronically or in paper form.

5. Automated decision – making and Profiling

In order to perform the contact between us and as required by Law 87(I)/2017 and the relevant Circulars issued by CYSEC, it is requested for the provision of the investment services to you, to assess your knowledge and experience, your financial situation and investment objectives.

We will fulfil the above requirements through the following tools:

Onboarding Questionnaire (including Product Governance Questionnaire) and Fitness Test: these take place when you require registering as client of the Company. Hence, we need to check and ensure that you fall within the Company's positive target market and you are suitable for the provision of the Company's services and products in regards to your categorisation, knowledge, financial background and experience in regards to financial services. Based on the results, you will be informed whether you are eligible to receive our services and become our Client. The reason for assessing you is to enable the Company to offer to you services suitable to you and act in your best interests.

The results above are monitored by the Compliance department of the Company. During these processes, the Company takes all the technical and operational measures to correct inaccuracies and minimise the risk of errors, to prevent any discrimination and to secure personal data of the client.

6. How we treat your personal data for marketing activities

We may process your personal data to tell you about products, services and offers that may be of interest to you or your business.

The personal data that we process for this purpose consists of information you provide to us and data we collect and/or infer when you use our services. This information helps the Company to improve its services, customise browsing experience and enables it to inform its clients of additional products, services or promotions relevant to clients. In some cases, profiling is used, i.e. we process your data automatically with the aim of evaluating certain personal aspects in order to provide you with targeted marketing information on products.

We can only use your personal data to promote our products and services to you if we have your explicit consent to do so or, in certain cases, if we consider that it is in our legitimate interest to do so.

You have the right to object at any time to the processing of your personal data for marketing purposes.

7. How long we store your personal data for

We will only retain your personal data for as long as we reasonably require it for legal or business purposes subject to a maximum of 5 years. In determining data retention periods, we take into account local laws, contractual obligations and the expectations and requirements of our customers. When we no longer need personal data, we securely delete or destroy it.

For example, we are subject to investment services and anti-money laundering laws which require us to retain copies and evidence of the actions taken by us in regard to your identity verification, sources of incomes and wealth, monitoring of your transactions, telephone, chat and email communications, orders and trades history, handling of your complaints and records that can demonstrate that we have acted in line with regulatory code of conduct throughout the business relationship. These records must be maintained for a period of five years after our business relationship with you has ended or even longer if we are asked by our Regulators.

Where you have opted out of receiving marketing communications, we will hold your details on our suppression list so that we know you do not want to receive these communications.

8. Transfers of personal data to third countries

Your personal data may be transferred to the following categories of recipients: banks, payment institutions, companies from the capital group to which the Company belongs, postal operators, supervisory authorities, financial information authorities, suppliers of tools and platform software used to handle transactions and financial operations performed in the course of the implementation of the agreement, as well as to send commercial information by electronic means of communication, legal advisors and entities providing servers and storing data.

Copies of your agreement with us may be transferred to, and stored at banking institutions in a destination outside the European Economic Area ("EEA"). It may also be processed by staff operating outside the EEA who works for one of our suppliers or Affiliate companies. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that where we carry out such transfers this will be made subject to applicable laws and where required subject to the appropriate safeguards. You may contact the Company in order to be informed of the appropriate or suitable safeguards (as the case may be).

When we transfer your data to other third parties outside the EEA such transfers will comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (Regulation EU 2016/679, and hence we may in some cases rely on a Commission Adequacy decision, or appropriate safeguards (e.g. applicable standard contractual clauses, binding corporate rules or any other equivalent applicable arrangements) or other grounds provided by the GDPR.

9. Your rights as a data subject

Right of access – you have the right to request from us to provide you with a copy of the personal data that we hold about you.

Right of rectification – you have a right to request from us to correct the personal data that we hold about you that is inaccurate or incomplete.

Right to be forgotten – you have a right to request from us in certain circumstances to erase your personal data from our records. In case that these circumstances apply to your case and provided that no exception to this obligation applies (e.g. where we are obliged to store your personal data in compliance with a legal obligation under Cypriot or EU law), the Company acting as your controller will erase your personal data from its records.

Right to restriction of processing – you have a right to request from us where certain conditions apply, to restrict the processing of your personal data.

Right of portability – you have the right to request from us where certain conditions apply, to have the data we hold about you transferred to another organisation. Where these conditions apply the Company will transfer your personal data to another organisation.

Right to object – you have the right to object on grounds relating to your particular situation, to certain types of processing such as direct marketing or where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Right to withdraw consent where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

In respect to the aforementioned rights, we will respond to requests for personal data and, where applicable, will correct, amend or delete your personal data.

We may charge you a reasonable fee when a request is manifestly unfounded, excessive or repetitive, or we receive a request to provide further copies of the same data. In this case we will send you a fee request which you will have to accept prior to us processing your request.

Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

10. Contacting us about this Policy

If you have any queries about the contents of this Policy, or wish to inform us of a change or correction to your personal data, would like a copy of the data we collect on you or would like to raise a complaint or comment, please contact us using the details set out below.

Providing personal data indicated in Privacy Policy is voluntary, but necessary to conclude the agreement and use the Company services. Failure to provide the personal data will result in refusal to conclude the agreement.

11. Data Protection Officer

The data controller has appointed a Data Protection Officer (Mr. Krzysztof Teofilski). E-mail: kteofilski@match-trade.com

We try to respond to your request within one month from the receipt of your request. In case that your request takes us longer than one month we will notify you accordingly and keep you updated. In this respect it should be noted that the information to be provided as a result of exercising your right shall be provided free of charge. Nonetheless and where requests are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, the Company may either:

(a) charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or communication or taking the action requested; or (b) refuse to act on the request

If you are not satisfied with our response to your complaint and/or your request was not handled within the timeframes specified, you have the right to lodge a complaint with our supervisory authority, the Cyprus Data Protection Commissioner. Alternatively, you also have the right to lodge a complaint with the data protection authority of your country of residence.

12. Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may make changes to this Policy from time to time. You will be notified about material changes that took place, however it is important that you check this Policy periodically so as to always be informed about we are processing and protecting your personal data. Any personal information we hold will be governed by our most current Privacy Policy.
